

***ANSWER THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS IN YOUR NOTEBOOKS*****

Instructions: Answer all questions in complete sentences using the text as well as your own opinions.

1. What are potential ethical concerns in studying this question? Are there any?
2. Is there one side that has more compelling evidence? Explain your answer.
3. What makes you who you are: your genes, your upbringing, your experiences, your decisions, or something else? Explain your answer using evidence from this text, your own experience, and other art or literature to answer this question.
4. In the context of this article, how much can people control their fate? How much is predetermined by their genes? Cite evidence from this text, your own experience, and other literature, art, or history in your answer.